Determining Gross Revenue Subject to SWA Franchise Fees for Construction Clean-up Businesses

SWA franchise fees are based on the gross commercial waste collection revenue of the franchisees and are defined in the SWA Title I and SWA Administrative Rules.

With this Administrative Rule, the SWA establishes the following method for determining gross commercial waste collection revenue subject to the SWA franchise fees for those franchisees whose primary business is providing construction clean-up services.

1. The SWA will establish gross revenue estimate based on the weight (tonnages) of commercial solid waste hauled by the construction clean-up companies in the SWA region.
2. The SWA may from time to time by a subsequent administrative rule adjust gross revenue estimate based on the most recent revenue and tonnages information available from SWA franchisees.
3. Gross commercial waste collection revenue subject to the SWA franchise fees for those SWA franchisees whose primary business is providing construction clean-up services is $105 for every ton (2000 lbs) of commercial solid waste collected.
